Introduction to the Infant and Toddler Workforce Specialized Competencies

The New Hampshire Early Childhood Professional Development System <http://www.dhhs.nh.gov/dcyf/cdb/profdev.htm> has been in existence since 1999, and a major revision to the system was completed in 2009 with further revision in 2012, to include the Infant Toddler Credential Endorsement. In 2010 the Infant Toddler Credential Task Force began eighteen months of work developing an Infant Toddler Credential Endorsement and Infant Toddler Competencies to address the infant toddler workforce and professional development for this specialized area of early childhood education.

The Infant Toddler Credential Task Force developed the Infant Toddler (IT) Competencies as an accompaniment to the Infant Toddler Credential Endorsement. Core Knowledge and Competencies are the knowledge and skills that early childhood professionals bring to and demonstrate in their work. With the development of the Infant/Toddler Competencies, the Preschool Competencies, and the Early Childhood Competencies, the early childhood community has access to an assessment tool to reflect on the knowledge and skills of those working with or on behalf of infants, toddlers and their families. Self-assessment supports reflective practice, a cornerstone of professionalism and best practice in the field of early childhood education. This ability for professionals to assess their knowledge and skills is important for professional growth and continuous quality improvement. Each of the three competencies booklets includes suggestions for intentional use of the competencies as they relate to specific Core Knowledge Areas.

The Infant Toddler Task Force designed the Infant Toddler Competencies for use by all professionals who work with children under age three and their families, across all relevant systems. Members of the task force represented cross sectors and disciplines: Early Intervention; Special Medical Services; Early Head Start; Head Start; Institutes of Higher Education; Child Care Licensing; New Hampshire Association for the Education of Young Children; Child Care Aware of New Hampshire; Child Care Programs; Maternal and Child Health; Early Supports and Services; and the Child Development Bureau in the Division for Children, Youth, and Families.

Our work on the competencies relied heavily on the work of the Office of Child Care and the Office of Head Start, which produced "A Guide to Effective Consultation with Settings Serving Infants, Toddlers, and Their Families, Core Knowledge, Competencies, and Dispositions", other state IT competencies, particularly Illinois and Maine, the New Hampshire Association for Infant Mental Health's New Hampshire's Early Childhood and Family Mental Health Competencies (in alignment with), the National Association for the Education of Young Children's NAEYC Standards for Early Childhood Professional Preparation, and our project technical assistance expert, Dianne Lake, from Zero To Three. We are indebted to them and to the members of the Infant Toddler Credential Task Force.

Infant and Toddler Workforce Specialized Competencies for Teaching and Learning, Promoting Child Growth and Development, Observing, Documenting, and Assessing

The competencies in this booklet are applicable to professionals who work with or on behalf of infants and toddlers and their families. Infant/toddler professionals need the age specific competencies in this book, as well as the competencies in two additional Core Knowledge Areas that apply to all professionals working with infants, toddlers, preschoolers and children in grades kindergarten through third grade. Please refer to the booklet of New Hampshire's Early Childhood Workforce Specialized Competencies for the Core Knowledge Areas Developing as a Professional and Building Family and Community Relationships.

These specialized competencies encompass Competencies specific to working with and for our youngest and most vulnerable children. The knowledge and skills included in these competencies, arranged by advancing levels, are necessary for optimal professional growth and development across sectors and disciplines. Following are some guidelines for use of the competencies in this booklet:

- Use all levels of competencies, Foundational, Intermediate, Advanced, and Specialist, as a self-assessment tool and for planning professional development to increase competency.
- Use all levels of competencies to set expectations for other professionals and assess progress in meeting expectations.
- Use the Foundational level of competencies as pre-service orientation for those entering the field, to teach the importance of understanding the specialized nature of working with infants and toddlers.
- Teachers, home visitors, early intervention specialists, medical specialists, and others who work with young children and families can use the Intermediate or higher level(s) of competencies to inform practice and identify strategies to improve service delivery.
- Program leaders can use the Advanced level competencies to help develop program policies, such as in staff handbooks, specific to infants and toddlers.
- Consultants can use the Specialist level of competencies to assess their own expertise, to conduct continuous quality improvement in their own work, and to provide technical assistance to others to improve quality.
- Institutes of Higher Education can align these competencies with specific course content. The competencies in this booklet would align with knowledge and skills taught in coursework such as, Infant and Toddler Care and Education, Infant Toddler Development, Developing Curriculum for Infants and Toddlers, and more.
- Use competencies to assess practicum students. All of the competencies are valuable as assessment tools for practicum coursework. Student teachers can self-assess and/or be assessed by practicum faculty.

Users of this booklet and the Early Childhood Competencies booklet will discover many more valuable ways to incorporate all of the competencies into practice with or on behalf of infants, toddlers, and their families. Share your ideas with your colleagues and help others to grow professionally!
